Many Arrests Have Already Been Made

AS RESULT OF SPECIAL DE-TECTIVES IN LIQUOR
CASES

LOCAL POLICE
ARE STILL BUSY

Serving Warrants and Making Arrests--Names of Those Already Arrested Late Last Night.

As a result of activities on the part of detectives from the national agency, ten arrests in fifteen liquor cases have already been made in the city, and many more are to be made in the next few hours. Yesterday afternoon and last night the local police were busy in serving warrants and making arrests in these cases. At least fifty cases are expected.

Three detectives, two men and one woman, were secured by Mayor Godfrey to work up these cases of selling liquor. The former two have been in the city for the past seven weeks, the latter for a few days. These agents come from the same agency as those who worked in the city several months ago with good results.

The first of these cases will be called on Monday, and it will probably take several days to dispose of them. It is said that the detectives have been very careful in working up their cases and that they have the evidence.

White Men.
Last night the names of the following white men were on the docket charged by the detectives: Leo Brown and Walter Rant, one case each; Mel Brown, two cases, that of selling alcohol. He was employed in Lyles drug store.

Negroes.
The following names of negroes appeared on the docket: Berry Williams, three cases; Ed Bouknight, one case; John Forgy, one case; Lawrence Walker, one case; Leonard English, one case.

Some of them have secured bond and others are still in jail.

INSURANCE MEN MET IN MONTHLY MEETING

MR. B. F. MAULDIN WAS PRIN-CIPAL SPEAKER OF EVENING

OTHER SPEECHES

Were Made On Subject That is of Utmost Importance to Agents
At This Time.

The monthly meeting of the Anderson Association of Life Insurance underwriters was held last evening at the Hotel Chiquola, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. A delightful supper was first served after which speeches were made.

The principal speaker of the night was Mr. B. Frank Mauldin, president of the Bank of Anderson, and pioneer insurer. Also the holder of the oldest policy in the county. Mr. Mauldin discussed insurance in general and gave some timely advice to young insurance men. He stressed the importance of life insurance from a banker's standpoint, stating that it was a basis in numerous cases for large loans, as well as small ones.

A synopsis of Mr. Mauldin's speech will appear in the Intelligencer Wednesday. A paper having decided to run special insurance news at least once every week, very probably every Wednesday.

After Mr. Mauldin's address there was an impromptu discussion of "How to Prevent Lapses, as a Consequence of Business." There were several discussions on this subject, all of them bringing up new phases of the situation. This is one of the most important questions that the insurance men face today.

The meeting adjourned about 10 o'clock, after a pleasant evening and one of the most instructive meetings since the organization of the association.

C. & W. C. UMBRELLA SHEDS ARE COMPLETED

ONLY FEW FINAL TOUCHES ARE TO BE ADDED BE-FORE TUESDAY

ARE 300 FEET LONG

Has Metal Shingle Roof, Steel
Posts, Set in Concrete and Later Cement Floor Placed.

The new umbrella shed of the Charleston & Western Carolina Railway company, which is to be used in connection with their passenger station on South Main street, will be finished by Tuesday as far as the contractors are concerned, and they will turn it over to the officials of the railway. It is understood that the passenger trains will begin running up to the new station about the middle of the week.

As has been announced before, the C. & W. C. had two of the store rooms of the old Anderson Hotel building remodeled (and made into waiting rooms, one for the whites and one for the colored. These rooms open directly on South Main street. Two tracks have been built up to the rear of this building and it is alongside these and right behind the waiting rooms that the umbrella shed is situated.

The shed has a length of about 300 feet, has a metal shingle roof supported by steel posts which are set in concrete, and its general style is like that of all other railway umbrella sheds. The floor will be of concrete and on such a plane that it will be even with the steps of the railroad cars. Owing to the unsettled condition of the ground, that floor will not be laid at present.

A freight station is to be built in the vicinity of the passenger station within the next few months. This building will be approximately 500 feet long and will be parallel with the shed. Plans are now being drawn.

CHANGE OF COURT IS SATISFACTORY TO ALL

JUDGE MOORE WIRES THAT
TUESDAY WILL SUIT HIM
ALL RIGHT

MONDAY SALES DAY

And for This Reason Change Was Made--Jurors Report on Tuesday Instead of Monday.

Civil court will begin on Tuesday, December 7, instead of Monday, December 6, as was at first announced. Mr. Samuel L. Prince, secretary of the Anderson county bar association, yesterday received a wire from Judge James Moore, stating that that date would suit him.

This change was asked by the bar association because of Monday being sales day. On account of this change jurors will report for duty on Tuesday morning instead of Monday.

Sportsman--Is it worth my time to shoot in this neighborhood?
Native--Well, the shooting isn't worth a cent, but then, I don't know what your time is worth. (Laughter.)

MISSION SERVICES TO BEGIN TOMORROW

OPENING SERVICES MONDAY
EVENING BY REV. R. M.
MARSHALL

QUESTION BOX

Inquiries About Bible, Church and Christian Religion Will Be Answered in Evening.

The nation wide preaching mission which is to be observed throughout the United States in the Episcopal church promises to be one of the biggest undertakings in the history of the church in America. In practically every parish of the Episcopal church in the nation a mission will be held in the near future. The diocese of South Carolina has decided to hold a mission in every parish in the state during the advent season. The mission in Grace church parish of this city will open Monday night, November 29th. Following the mission service, which is mostly a song service, the mission, the Rev. R. Maynard Marshall, Clemson college will preach. The Rev. Mr. Marshall will preach each evening at the eight o'clock service.

One of the most interesting features of the night service will be the answering of the questions which are placed in the question box. An opportunity will be afforded those who attend the mission to place questions concerning the church, the Bible, or any aspect of the Christian religion in this box. The question will be answered at the evening services.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend this preaching service and hear the sermons of this visiting clergyman.

Preparedness and Party.
Kitchin seems to have got in bad mainly for failure to regard as a party question as proposal which the president says is not a party question. His troubles have arisen largely from a desire to remain on the democratic platform and to take the president at his word. "Should the democrats line up solidly, and abuse any democrat with the hardhood to call his conscience and soul his own, what would the republicans, now being appealed to for help by the president, think of the president's assurance that this matter of preparedness for national defense is not a party matter? If it is not a party matter, why the demand, even in this state, to make it so?"

President Wilson is obviously right when he says the matter of national defense is not a party question. The democratic party has never made it a party question, and it has never spoken through its accredited representatives in convention assembled. It may never do so. Indeed, if a democratic congress should accept the president's program, the next national convention might disapprove of the legislation. It will be certain to do so if the people ever find out who is financing the noise and why. (Greenboro News.)

A Logical Inquiry.
"Carry yer best," said an eager urchin to a man on Broad street, hurrying toward the Pennsylvania station.
"No, thanks," replied the man shortly.
"I'll carry it all the way for a dime," persisted the lad.
"I'll tell you--I don't want it carried," retorted the man.
"Don't yer?"
"No, I don't."
The lad broke into a quick trot to keep up with his victim's hasty strides, as he asked, in innocent curiosity, "Then what are you carrying it for?" Exchange.

Garlington, home demonstration agent for Anderson county has just finished making out her annual report and it shows some interesting facts in connection with the girls tomato club work and for the women's home demonstration work. "The teachers of county have been of great help to me. The women of the civic league very kindly offered to co-operate with me by helping to organize rural clubs, read papers, etc."

"The support I have received from the newspapers of Anderson county has been grand; also have been supported by the business men. The mayor of the city of Anderson and the city council gave me $25 toward running a three-day short course at Anderson college. This was the most wonderful ever given in Anderson county for the benefit of her country girls and every one who took part was greatly benefited."

"In six months I visited 300 homes. In July we held a three day chautauqua at Williamston. I have had four exhibits of the girls' canned goods. I now have seven homekeepers' clubs, 130 girls in cooking and 25 raw patches ready as a cover crop for next year's tomato plots."

"The number of pounds of tomatoes raised on one-tenth of an acre range from 1,150 to 3,350, and the money realized from these plots range from 15 cents to $142.75."

Mr. Francis is said to see victory ahead, the last important shipment must have been made up of high-power telescopes. (Washington Post.)

Political score story. Once upon a time there was a small village. It was called Star.
